From thought to practice

A Dialogue Between Artificial Intelligence and Digital Humanities

05–06.11.2026
Aula Affreschi, Via Zamboni 34, Bologna

Free admission
Registration required

How does humanistic research change in the era of Artificial Intelligence?

Funded by

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICAL PHILOLOGY AND ITALIAN STUDIES

Supported by

BolDH

With the patronage of

ASSOCIAZIONE per l'INFORMATICA UMANISTICA e la CULTURA DIGITALE

05.11.26
morning session

EXPERTS DIALOGUES <LEARNING>

10:00 - 10:10
Welcome & Opening Remarks

10:10 - 10:20
Prof. Francesca Tomasi and Prof. Giovanni Colavizza
Introduction: DH+AI

10:20 - 11:00
Dr. Enrico Daga
From Data Façades to the Ontological Continuum: Diversity in Humanities Knowledge Graphs

11:00 - 11:30
Coffee break

11:30 - 12:10
Dr. Eva Cetinić
Challenges of Evaluating Visual Generative AI Models as Cultural Objects

12:10 - 12:50
Dr. Lise Stork
Who Does What? Human–LLM Knowledge Engineering in DH

12:50 - 13:00
Wrap-up

13:00 - 14:30
Lunch break

05.11.26
afternoon session

USE CASES PRESENTATIONS <SHARING>

14:30 - 14:40
Session introduction

14:40 - 15:20
Tiago Filipe Nunes Ribeiro
Historical Person Register (HisPeR)

15:20 - 16:00
Selda Eren
FREE: Schema-Guided Information Extraction from Documents

16:00 - 16:30
Coffee break

16:30 - 17:10
Yevhenii Osadchuk
Relay – Reliable AI Assistant for Research

17:10 - 17:30
Wrap-up

Host of the seminars series
Digital Humanities Advanced Research Centre (University of Bologna)

Partner research centre
Centre for Digital and Computational Humanities (University of Copenhagen)

06.11.26

WORKSHOP <DOING>

9:00 - 13:00
Forge Your Personal AI Stack:
A Laboratory for Advanced Retrieval-Augmented Generation with Self-Hosted LLMs